INTRODUCTION

The FBI OTD is seeking information from qualified Artificial Intelligence (AI) vendors to participate in an Industry Day. The purpose of this event is to facilitate a comprehensive understanding of current AI capabilities, trends, and solutions that may be beneficial in the furtherance of using AI to support the OTD mission as we seek to develop and enhance technology-based solutions for field operations.

BACKGROUND

As part of our ongoing efforts to incorporate advanced technologies into our operations, the OTD aims to engage with industry leaders in AI. This Industry Day will provide a platform for vendors to showcase their AI solutions, share insights, and explore potential collaborations.

The OTD is seeking vendors with experience developing and/or operationalizing AI capabilities that are applicable to the following three key areas listed:

1. Cybersecurity including analyzing system security; analyzing and correlating events and cyberthreat data across multiple sources; and turning results of analysis it into clear and actionable insights that can be actioned.
2. Analysis of diverse data holdings with tight regulatory controls on government systems including in air-gapped environments.
3. Secure code generation/completion and analysis of existing code.

CONTEMPLATED REQUIREMENT

*Date: June 10, 2025

*Time: 0900 – 1500 EST

*Location: Quantico, VA

AI Roundtable: Vendors will be able to participate in a roundtable with FBI personnel where they will discuss OTD AI ideas and initiatives.

Vendor breakout sessions, networking opportunity, vendor fair:

- Vendors will have a series of 15 minutes blocks to provide FBI personnel an overview of their AI solutions and capabilities.
- Vendors will be able to set up a table to showcase their tools and capabilities and network with FBI personnel at a vendor fair.

A full schedule will be provided in the formal invitation to selected vendors.

Vendor registrations will be screened for applicability and those deemed of interest will receive a formal invitation. Due to time and space availability not all vendors requesting to participate will be able to receive an invitation. Invitations will be decided by the applicability to the key areas outlined and on a first come first serve basis.
