Description

Industry Day announcement for Degraded Visual Environment Sensor (DVES)

*RSVP Due Date 23 May 2025 at 5:00 P.M Eastern Standard Time****

The Air Force Life Cycle Management Center (AFLCMC)/Intelligence, Surveillance, Reconnaissance and Special Operations Forces (ISR-SOF) Directorate, Special Operations Forces Personnel Rescue (SOF/PR) & Rotary Program Office are pleased to announce Degraded Visual Environment Sensor (DVES) One-on-One Industry Day Event.

Industry Day Details:

Dates: June 3rd and 4th, 2025

Time: 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM EST (both days)

Location: Museum of Aviation Eagle Conference Room (3rd Floor), 1942 Heritage Blvd, Warner Robins, GA 31098

Purpose: This Industry Day aims to connect the Air Force with vendors capable of developing and delivering cutting-edge Degraded Visual Environment Sensor (DVES) technology. The event will provide a comprehensive overview of the DVES program and offer potential vendors an opportunity to demonstrate their solutions. This interaction will facilitate the development and delivery of innovative DVES solutions to enhance situational awareness in degraded visual environments.

Target Audience: Companies specializing in sensor development, DVE mitigation technologies, and related fields.

Registration: Interested vendors must register by May 23rd, 2025, to David Jones (david.jones.189@us.af.mil) and Kimberly Janssen (kimberly.janssen@us.af.mil). Vendor response will be used to create a vendor presentation schedule, which will be distributed to vendors and published on sam.gov before the event.
