Sole Source (Including Brand Name) Justification - Simplified Procedures for Certain Commercial Items

I. Contracting Activity.

U.S. Air Force (USAF), Pacific Air Forces (PACAF), 18th Wing, 18th Contracting Squadron, Kadena Air Base, Okinawa, Japan

II. Nature and/or description of the action being processed.

Issuance of four new task orders for local drayage (schedule III) within the ordering period of IDIQ FA527020D0001 to cover local drayage for fiscal year 2025.

III. Description of supplies/services required to meet agency needs.

This is Local Drayage Services which are personal property moves for all service locations (Air Force, Marine Corps, Navy, and Army) from on-base to off-base, from off-base to on-base, within on-base or off-base in Okinawa, Japan. The contractor will furnish all personnel, equipment, facilities, supplies, services, and materials, except as specified herein as government-furnished, for the preparation of the personal property (including servicing of appliances) of Department of Defense (DoD) personnel (military and civilian) for shipment, drayage and related services through the Direct Procurement Method (DPM) in accordance with Defense Transportation Regulations (DTR) 4500.9R and Department Air Force Instruction (DAFI) 24-602V2. 18 Logistic Readiness Squadron (LRS) Traffic Management Operations, Personal Property Section does not have the appropriate manpower to handle this task for personal property moves.

IV. Statutory authority permitting other than full and open competition.

6.302-2 Unusual and compelling urgency

V. Demonstration that the contractor's unique qualifications or nature of the acquisition requires the use of the authority cited above (applicability of authority).

Schedule III is the drayage contract to support local moves in Okinawa. Local move is defined as short-distance HHG moves within the Service member's Permanent Duty Station (PDS) commuting distance and within the authorized weight allowance. Local moves are executed when moving to/from/with on-base and off-base housing under the funded authorization from Base Housing Office. If an order would not have been placed on 30 September 2024, all government-directed local moves would have stopped members from moving into appropriate housing. This would have affected all emergency local moves due to the current spalling issues affecting Kadena. It would have also delayed members from reporting to work, due to personal procurement necessities. This would lead to mission degradation across all services on Okinawa. It would also cause an increase to government moving expenses, hard ship for members to self-move, and find an available contractor to support with no government legal representation. In addition, it would have posed increase security risk as the contractors would not have been vetted in advance by the Traffic Management Office and Security Forces. The number of personnel that are allowed to be sponsored on a base by a single member are limited. This can cause additional concerns with ability for a member to complete their move in a single day adding stress, hardship, and expenses to the Government, to pay for temporary storage either by contractor or through additional housing rent requirements. If the orders would not have been issued to cover local drayage in Okinawa, there would not be any contract coverage for fiscal year 2025. Issuing the new task orders was the only method to ensure local moves didn't come to a work stop on September 30, 2024. This would also severely impact the mission as there have been several emergency moves due to spalling issues in base housing. Lastly, the stoppage of movement for personnel would lead to insufficient or extreme limitations on housing capabilities across Okinawa and delay scheduled or emergency CES maintenance on USFJ installation housing units, a direct violation of 18 WG/CC's infrastructure improvement line-of-effort.

VI. Description of efforts made to ensure that offers are solicited from as many potential sources as practicable.

The 18th Contracting Squadron is currently working the reacquisition of a new requirements contract for local drayage (schedule III). A sources sought was posted from December 12th to December 24th. Three companies showed interest in the local drayage requirement. Only one of the companies was a local business that could provide the services on Okinawa.

VII. Determination by the Contracting Officer that the anticipated cost to the Government will be fair and reasonable.

In accordance with FAR 13.106-3(a)(1), the proposed price has been determined to be fair and reasonable based upon competitive quotations

VIII. Description of the market research conducted and the results, or a statement of the reasons market research was not conducted.

There is limited competition on the island of Okinawa for drayage services. This can lead to a longer lead time in order to put a new drayage contract in place. This was considered when deciding if putting a intermittent contract in place to perform while a 5 year reacquisition was still being worked. Due to the uncertainty of the contracting office on whether or not there would be sufficient time to put an intermittent contract in place to cover the reacquisition period, it was decided it was in the Governments best interest to issue the new task orders to cover fiscal year 2025.

IX. Any other facts supporting the use of Other Than Full and Open Competition.

N/A

X. List of any sources that expressed, in writing, an interest in the acquisition.

A sources sought was posted for the reacquisition of local drayage and the below two companies showed interest in performing.

BHPE LLC
Global Van Co., Ltd.
