BACKGROUND

CIGIE is responsible for addressing integrity, economy, and effectiveness issues that transcend individual Government agencies; and increase the professionalism and effectiveness of personnel by developing policies, technical standards, and approaches to aid in the establishment of a well-trained and highly skilled workforce in the Office of Inspector General. CIGIE was established in October 2008 as an independent entity within the United States executive branch by the Inspector General Reform Act (IGRA).

The CIGIE Technology Committee's Small OIG Working Group's mission is to reflect the interests and needs of small OIGs; provide a forum for sharing knowledge and strategies for success; propose and support initiatives within the Technology Committee and improve awareness and the use of technology within smaller OIG offices.

FedRAMP is a government-wide program that promotes the adoption of secure cloud services across the federal government by providing a standardized approach to security and risk assessment for cloud technologies and federal agencies.
