

Performance Work Statement (PWS)
Joint Region Marianas (JRM)
Chaplains' Religious Enrichment Development
Operations (CREDO) Spiritual Growth Retreats (SGR)

1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1. Joint Region Marianas (JRM) is the regional coordinator for all shore-based naval personnel and shore activities in Guam, as well as the Navy's representative to the Guam community. JRM also provides key infrastructure services including the Federal Fire Department, Security & Law Enforcement, Navy Brig, Safety Department and Religious Ministry Department.
- 1.2. Naval Base Guam Chapel (NBG) provides Religious Ministry programs to over twenty thousand active duty Sailors, their families and the Guam community.
- 1.3. The Chaplains' Religious Enrichment Development Operations (CREDO) retreats provide specialized ministry and support services for military members (active-duty, and reservists in an active status) and their eligible dependents. This program is in accord with the Department of the Navy's (DON) Strategic Plan for Religious Ministry and the Chief of Naval Operations' Sailing Directions. CREDO Guam retreats are held at non-government locations (off-site of military installations) for the purpose of creating a productive environment to facilitate personal growth. CREDO Guam Personal Growth retreats are conducted on a Saturday).
- 1.4. Services for Personal Growth (PG) Retreats are conducted by Region Chaplains on island from Naval Base Guam (NBG), Naval Hospital Guam (NHG), Anderson Air Force Base (AAFB), and sponsored by the Chief of Navy Chaplains (N0973) per US Code Title 10, SECNAVINST 1730.7D, OPNAVINST 1738.1.
