¹ 7 CFR 210.10\(c\)\(2\)\(iii\)\(A\)

be evidenced by a Certificate of Analysis (COA) maintained by the contractor. USDA requires the contractor to retain the COA for a minimum of seven years from the date of issuance.

- B. Contractors shall notify the Government immediately of lots that fail to meet contract requirements.

Part 2 CONTAINER AND PACKAGING REQUIREMENTS

Section 2.1 GENERAL

This part provides the container specifications and packaging materials requirements used under this contract.

Section 2.2 COMMERCIAL PACKAGING AND LABELING

A. Contractors shall supply commercial brand products only and shall certify at the time of submission of an offer that the commercial product being delivered has a history of successful distribution and use in domestic commercial channels and is sold on the commercial market with an established level of consumer acceptance.

B. Container and packaging requirements are those used in the current commercial shipping practices and shall comply with:

(1) Container, Packaging, and Unitization requirements in the Master Solicitation (MSCP-D).

(2) For materials destined for household programs (e.g., 110741), all individual primary containers' labels must also meet the following criteria:

- Must include, at a minimum, two (2) colors, in addition to black and white.
- Must incorporate a graphic (photo or illustration) depicting the product/contents on the principal display panel OR contain a clear viewing window so product/contents are visible.

(3) At contractor's option, a statement such as "Not for Retail Sale" may be printed on the principal display panel of the food label.

(4) The manufacturer's lot code/lot identification number shall be shown on the commercial bill of lading.

(5) Shipping containers shall be marked to show the maximum safe stacking height and labeled "KEEP FROZEN". It is the responsibility of the contractor in cooperation with the shipping container manufacturers to determine the safe stacking height.

(6) For identification upon receipt at delivery warehouses, all commercial-labeled product shipping documents shall specify "FOR USDA FOOD DISTRIBUTION PROGRAMS."

Section 2.3 CONTAINERS AND PACKAGING MATERIALS
