IV. COMMERCIAL QUESTIONS:

 It is the Contracting Officer’s authority to determine an item(s) commercial or not and if the commercial price(s) are Fair and Reasonable. This is usually accomplished through proof that commercial market forces have driven the setting of the commercial price.

1. Are any of these items Commercial Items per FAR 2.101(b)? ☐ Yes ☐ No
2. If yes, is your company willing and able to provide evidence of commercial sales and support needed to verify price reasonableness? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Documentation that would potentially help support your commerciality claim may include but is not limited to:

 1. Published Catalogs/Price Lists
 2. Un-Redacted Commercial sales history (e.g. Invoices showing sales to companies outside of Federal, State or Local Government, etc). The importance of provided un-redacted invoices is to assist in proving the item(s) have been sold commercially at like prices and for like quantities.
 3. Complete set of Drawings. You may mark your drawings as “Proprietary and Confidential” as the Government will only use them for determination of Price Reasonableness.
 4. Proof of availability or announcement of the Commercial Item to the general public

VII. DELIVERY QUESTIONS:

1. Are there production limitations for any of the item(s) of which we are requesting information? ☐ Yes ☐ No
If yes, please annotate on the attached spreadsheet.
2. Would a minimum delivery order quantity and/or dollar value apply to these NSNs? ☐ Yes ☐ No
If yes, please annotate on the attached spreadsheet.

VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION/INPUT:

It is always the Defense Logistics Agency's intent to produce Contracts that are advantageous to both the Warfighter and the Contractor. This is best achieved through open lines of communication and informative feedback. Please provide any additional information that you feel may be of assistance in building our Acquisition Strategy and possible Solicitation development.
