

Industry Questions with Responses

1. Draft SOW, Paragraph 1.10, Key Personnel: Does this refer to a Program Manager who is responsible for schedule and performance of work on a daily basis, or to a Contract Manager who is responsible for all communications with the Government Contracting Officer?

Response: Both. This paragraph will be updated.

2. Can the max scanner dimension width specification be increased to 34.2”?

Response: Yes

3. Is an entry roller table required? Does the roller table need to be an integral part of the X-ray machine, or can it be a peripheral which is moved independent of the movement of the X-ray machine?

Response: Yes. Roller table need to be integral part of the X-ray machine

4. Can the minimum conveyor speed be changed to 20 cm/s (39.4 ft/min)?

Response: Yes

5. What specific threats are of interest to be detected? Does automatic threat detection imply utilization of automated Artificial Intelligence software that places bounding boxes around suspected threat items in the X-ray image?

Response: Firearms, ammo, knives, razors, sharp objects, billy clubs, explosives devices, etc. Yes.

6. What is the desired run-time of the X-ray machine when being operated on an integrated power source? Is normal operation of the X-ray machine accomplished utilizing available shore power, 120VAC power plug?

Response: 5-10 minutes. 120VAC power plug.

7. Does MICC-Ft Knox require Inside Delivery to the interior installation location at each of the 17 Delivery Locations, or is dock-to-dock delivery acceptable, where the site is responsible for movement of the equipment from the loading dock to the interior installation location?

Response: Inside delivery to the installation location is required.

8. Can it be assumed that X-ray operators at the MEPS locations have prior working knowledge/competency on the operation and routine maintenance of the existing Astrophysics X-ray machines, or are they novice operators?

Response: Yes

9. For a matter of clarity, is this requirement predicated on the Operator Control

Unit Imaging Processing Functions, or are you seeking image analysis?

Response: Operator Control Unit Processing Functions

10. Can it be assumed the 2 hours of Government notification is telephonic and the 72 hours excludes weekends and holidays due to Section 1.5 hours of operation?

Response: Yes

11. The Description states: The MICC – Ft. Knox intends to issue a Request for Quote (RFQ) to provide approximately 16 mobile X-ray baggage scanners. This should be 17.

Response: Correct

12. It is stated that the estimated delivery date for all supplies is 1 July 2025. Does this include installation, commissioning, training of new X-ray machines, and Removal and Disposal of existing X-ray systems at all MEPS locations?

Response: Yes. Please note, all dates are estimates and subject to change on the final RFQ.