

STATEMENT OF WORK (SOW)
New York Immigration Court Parking

1. BACKGROUND

The primary mission of the Department of Justice (DOJ) Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) is to adjudicate immigration cases by fairly, expeditiously, and uniformly interpreting and administering the Nation's immigration laws. Under delegated authority from the Attorney General, EOIR conducts immigration court proceedings, appellate reviews, and administrative hearings. EOIR consists of three adjudicatory components: The Office of the Chief Immigration Judge, which is responsible for managing the Immigration Courts where Immigration Judges adjudicate individual cases; the Board of Immigration Appeals, which primarily conducts appellate reviews of these Immigration Judge decisions; and the Office of the Chief Administrative Hearing Officer, which adjudicates immigration-related employment cases.

The Office of Administration provides headquarters and regional support to all components of the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) and includes the Offices of Budget and Financial Management; Office of Procurement Services; Office of Human Resources; Employee Engagement and Training; Space and Facilities Management Staff; Office of Logistics; and the Office of Security.

Within the Office of Space and Facilities Management Services (SFMS), the Space and Facilities Program Coordinator manages various aspects of space acquisition, utilization and alteration; space projections and disposal; and the development of associated budget costs and compliance with environmental protection, historical preservation and Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) regulations.
