

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES CHART FOR THE STATEMENT OF OBJECTIVES RFI

Responsibilities (RSI: Responsible, Supporting, Informed)

Note: Whenever SPRIND and Contractor are marked R, the Contractor is directly responsible for U.S. side while also aligning with SPRIND.

Workstream	Details	NSF	SPRIND	Contractor
0. Topic Selection and Preparation	Formulate and refine topic, end goal and milestones	R	R	I
1. Outreach and Cohort Selection	Develop the call for proposals and application process including an open application form	S	R	R
	Develop and publish Participant Agreement for teams	S	R	R
	Prepare marketing documents and promote through various channels (e.g., social media, website, traditional media)	S	R	R
	Create a secure platform to facilitate efficient coordination with and among NSF, SPRIND and jury members	I	I	R
	Reach out to and select jury members	R	R	S
	Screen applications and short-list the most promising approaches	R	R	I
	Coordinate the review of shortlist by jury members	I	I	R
	Send invitations to pitch teams	I	I	R
	Coordinate pitch day logistics (initial and at end of each stage)	I	I	R
	Decide cohort/participating teams (initial and at end of each stage)	R	R	I
2. Subcontracting with the Selected Teams	Notify selected teams	I	R	R
	Execute Participant Agreement with teams	I	R	R
	Distribute funding to teams	I	R	R
3. Mentoring and Technical Assistance	Support individual teams (e.g., biweekly individual coaching in technical and business development)	S	R	R

	Support cohort of teams (e.g., quarterly, in-person events for awardees, coaches and funding agency staff)	S	S	R
	Provide networking opportunities for teams	S	R	R
4. Documentation and Reporting	Document and report on progress towards milestones and key learnings at regular cadences and ad hoc	I	I	R
	Summarize key learnings and share templates, written procedures, coaching materials, guidelines or other tools/artifacts	I	I	R