

Statement of Work
ALCO-251 Engine Fuel Injector Pump Supports Overhaul and Maintenance Training
USCG Technicians

1. GENERAL

1.1 Background

The Coast Guard is seeking training for the overhaul and maintenance of the ALCO-251 engine Fuel Injector Pump Supports for up to three (3) Industrial Production Facility (IPF) Portsmouth personnel currently in positions that will require them to perform and supervise Fuel Injector Pump Supports overhaul and maintenance on the ALCO-251 engines used on USCG 270' Medium Endurance Cutters.

1.2 Scope

The vendor shall provide classroom and hands-on training for up to three (3) IPF Portsmouth civilian Coast Guard personnel that covers the overhaul and maintenance of the ALCO-251 engine.

2. REQUIREMENTS

Training must consist of at least 50% of course being hands-on and cover maintenance items and tasks such as:

- Diesel Theory
- Engine construction
- Component and support system construction and operation
- Cylinder head removal, disassembly, component tests and inspection lab
- Piston and conrod removal, disassembly and inspection lab
- Major fuel system components
- Fuel pump and nozzle removal lab
- Injection pump removal and inspection lab
- Fuel pump installation and adjustment lab
- Camshaft gear removal
- Governor drives rebuild
- Main Bearing installation lab

2.5 Delivery Location

Training to be provided at vendor's training facility in Beloit, WI. Contractor is not required to provide lodging or meals.

2.6 References

Training shall be conducted in accordance with Fairbanks Morse technical and maintenance standards set forth for the ALCO-251 Engines.

3. PERIOD OF PERFORMANCE

This training will be provided during the 28 April – 02 May training session.