4. Identify statutory authority permitting limiting sources. Cite the authority under one of the exceptions listed under FAR 6.302.

- ☒ FAR 6.302-1 Only one responsible source and no other supplies or services will satisfy agency requirements.
- ☐ FAR 6.302-2 Unusual and compelling urgency.
- ☐ FAR 6.302-3 Industrial mobilization; engineering, developmental, or research capability; or expert services.
- ☐ FAR 6.302-4 International agreement.
- ☐ FAR 6.302-5 Authorized or required by statute.
- ☐ FAR 6.302-6 – National Security
- ☐ FAR 6.302-7 Public Interest

5. A statement demonstrating the unique qualifications of the proposed contractor or the nature of the action requiring use of the authority.

Explosives Ordnance Disposal (EOD) teams from Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps train to common standards by joint attendance at Naval School Explosive Ordnance Disposal. For disposals and other operations, military directives require EOD teams to utilize explosives with a Department of Defense Identification Code (DODIC) or Department of Defense Ammunition Code (DODAC).

The ATF Homemade Explosives Program provides training on disposal of homemade explosives to a joint audience of EOD teams, public safety bomb technicians, and ATF agents. Disposal repetitions in the training setting must be consistent with operational equipment/supplies to allow for proper learning and confidence. ATF has created standardized training and procedures built around utilizing explosives manufactured by Ensign Bickford Aerospace & Defense Company.
