Section B: Description of the Supplies/Services Required

The 366 FW is requesting the purchase of Applied Suicide Intervention Training (ASIST) and materials through Wing Deliberate Development Funding. Suicide intervention training refers to a type of training that equips individuals with the skills and knowledge needed to identify and intervene when someone is at risk of suicide. The goal of suicide intervention training is to teach individuals how to recognize the warning signs of suicide, how to effectively communicate with individuals who may be at risk, and how to connect them with the appropriate resources.

Section C: Justification for Soliciting from a Single Source or Brand Name

LivingWorks is the developer of the ASIST Program and the sole provider of all certification and training material. Although other organizations provide suicide intervention training, none provides a dedicated train the trainer certification course. Under the Basic Chaplain Course Curriculum Plan used Air Force wide in order for Chaplains to graduate from the course, its required to attend the 2-day ASIST workshop and obtain the certification.

Section D: Efforts to Obtain Competition

The efforts to obtain competition includes a search by the contracting office via SAM.gov for previous contracts. All efforts lead to this being sole sources to LivingWorks Education USA. Inc. In addition, under the Dynamic Small Business Search (DSBS only 5 companies came up on DSBS. Two (2) of which specialize in Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training (ASIST), LivingWorks Education USA Inc. and Suscipio Coaching and Consulting LLC. A further search was conducted on SAM.gov, Suscipio Coaching and Consulting LLC has not been active since 2015.

Section E: Steps to Preclude Future Single Source or Brand Name Awards

At this time, the market lacks another suicide intervention program that is developed similar to what LivingWorks can provide. However, we will continue to monitor the newly developed programs that fit their needs.
